A: I also use regedit to find the particular key that has a value that you are looking for and set the value to 0. If the said key has a value of 0 it means the key doesn't exist. I hope that this helps. Sam Smith (Australian footballer) Sam Smith (born 19 January 1994) is a former Australian rules footballer who played for the Port Adelaide Football Club in the Australian Football League (AFL). Sam Smith played his first game in the SANFL for Port Adelaide Football Club, on the wing in their 24 point win over Glenelg Football Club at Norwood Oval on 4 June 2012. He came from nowhere to win best on ground in the game. Smith made his AFL debut in Round 14, 2012 after being named on the bench for the first ever VFL match in Round 13, 2012, which ended in a loss by Port Adelaide to North Melbourne. In the Round 17 2013 AFL Grand Final, Smith played against Melbourne Demons' Tom Jonas but was crunched by Jonas. As a result of the collision, Smith was concussed and left the field for the rest of the game. After a period of concussion and memory loss, Smith was cleared to return to full training in June and resumed playing in Port Adelaide's SANFL reserves side. Port Adelaide decided not to re-sign Smith after a season where he played just 14 games. He was instead offered a two-year contract by the Adelaide Football Club, however he returned to Port Adelaide in the 2013 AFL Draft. The Bruins won their first of back-to-back division titles in franchise history by a score of 3-0. Michael Ryder scored a pair of goals, while Chris Bourque added the other for Boston. Rich Peverley and David Krejci put away the empty-netter. The victory has a lot of meaning going into the Bruins' first-round playoff series against the Penguins, starting in Pittsburgh on Saturday.
